The Banner.

A WHEAT blockade at Minneapolis has caused a coal famine in the Convention City. Build more railroads.

McKINLEY had 929,025 votes out of 785,886. The opposition scored a majority of nearly 250,000 against him, but they were not all for Campbell.

RUSSELL HARRISON, the President's ally, has been over in Philadelphia endeavoring to start a Presidential boom for his "p." He only succeeded in making a donkey of himself.

McKINLEY is not talked of as a candidate for President since the late election to any alarming extent. Even the protected monopolists don't seem to glue to him as was expected.

MR. B. HARRISON, otherwise known as Baby McKee's grandfather, recently went out a duck hunting; but with his usual bad luck, he returned to Washington utterly disgusted, not having captured a single curlew.

While several hundred people had assembled to witness a fight between two goats at Guanajuato, Mexico, a small amphitheatre gave way, when twelve persons were killed and nine others seriously injured.

HENRY S. HYDE, the Massachusetts member of the Republican National Committee, is of the opinion that "Blaine will be nominated practically without opposition, if he does not positively decline before the Convention meets."

This remarkable paragraph appears in the Akron Beacon, a Republican paper:

"Baby McKee is to have the crib in which President Harrison was born and grew" when he was a baby. Mamma McKee, like all good and ambitious mothers, has the maternal aspirations for Master McKee.

The Columbus Dispatch, (Rep.) has the following pointed article:

"Senator Sherman is once more on a par with Senator Brice in respect to his Ohio citizenship. He has gone to Washington and is virtually no longer an inhabitant of Ohio. That is he will not be able to learn that some of his fences are down, and then like many other United States Senators he will honor us with a visit."

The Cincinnati Times-Star Washington (D. C.) special says that Secretary Blaine will in a few days publicly state his position with reference to the Presidential nomination, with a view to put a stop to party factions; that he and President Harrison have reached an agreement which looks to the success of the candidate and not of individual promotion.

The Philadelphia Record remarks that one thing is well settled, and that is that it would have been wise to have put off passing the McKinley Tariff act until after the World's Fair. The world does not take as much interest in America as it would in trade her products for the products which she solicits other nations to exhibit at Chicago.

ACCORDING to the New York Herald Minneapolis paid a pretty steep price for the honor. It raised $100,000 to pay off the indebtedness of the Republican National Committee and the expense of the campaign. The party's next step is to start its campaign. The hotel capacity of Minneapolis, St. Paul and the adjacent lakes at its 25,000.

ISAIAH CARPENTER, who claims to be 150 years old, is living in London county, Virginia. He is a good republican and states that he drove a team in Braddock's Army, and was acquainted with General Washington and other prominent fathers of the Republic. Mr. Carpenter's son, who died some fifteen years ago, it is claimed, was 100 years old, while his daughter, who resides in Maine, is a sprightly young lady of eighty.

The New York Tribune says: "The way the Democratic platform in Ohio acted on the vote is shown by the heavy loss McKinley sustained as compared with his own ticket. Ohio Democrats certainly did not vote for him, and as against him Ohio Democracy made at least 5,500 converts who were converted to the New York vote for him. Had John Sherman been driven instead of defeated, the Democrats might have easily carried the State. The final count shows that they had every chance to beat McKinley if they could have got at his family."

The law of New York requires all candidates to make a sworn return of their election expenses. Senator Stewart, running for re-election as a Republican in one of the city districts, makes a report that his election expenses amounted to $6,993. It cost him more by one-third to be defeated for Senator than it did to be elected Governor. As Stewart's salary for two years as Senator would have been only $3,000, it will be seen that it is an expensive luxury to go to the New York legislature, and even more expensive to be defeated. But Mr. Stewart is a millionaire and can easily bear the loss.

At the late election in sixty-seven counties in Ohio, says the Tiffin Advertiser, the Democrats sustained a loss of 17,000, and in the same counties the People's ticket received a vote of 16,746. In the other twenty-one counties the Republicans sustained a loss of 6,429, and the People's ticket received 5,077 votes. It is estimated that 16,000 Democrats and 5,000 Republicans voted the People's ticket, thus defeating the only candidate of tariff reform who had any chance of election. It will be thus seen that while the Republicans who professed to favor the People's ticket, the Democrats stood by their promise and thus helped elect McKinley Governor and Sherman Senator.

Mashed strawberry ribbons set at one dollar a yard but you can get a lot of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for only twenty-five cents.

"We'll be glad and happy," for Salvation Oil is only 25 cents a bottle. It kills all pain.

The New Senate.

New York World.]

The Senate of the Fifty-second Congress is composed of forty-seven Republicans, thirty-nine Democrats and two Republican men.

A Republican, Mr. Felton, has succeeded Mr. Hearst in California. A Democrat, Gen. Palmer, has succeeded Mr. Farwell in Illinois. Mr. Peffer, of the Farmer's Alliance, has been chosen from Kansas in place of Mr. Ingalls.

Mr. Gibson, of the last House, takes the place of Senator Wilson, of Maryland, who is dead. Jacob H. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, follows Mr. Blair.

David B. Hill succeeds Mr. Evans. Mr. Hansbrough, of North Dakota, succeeds Mr. Pierce. John L. McPherson, of South Carolina, takes the place of Wade Hampton. Calvin S. Brice follows Mr. Payne. Ex-Secretary McKim succeeds Mr. Spooner, and Mr. Kyle, of the Farmer's Alliance, has been chosen in place of Mr. Moody, of South Dakota.

These are the new Senators. On any reasonable tariff reduction measure the Democrats are sure of the votes of the high protection Republicans who voted against the McKinley tariff bill. To these must be added Mr. Hansbrough, of North Dakota, who is pledged against all high-tariff legislation. The four transfers from the Republican column to the opposition will make the vote for a reasonable reduction of tariff, at least, a measure of relief in the veto power in the hands of the Western farmers.

There is strong ground for predicting that there may be some tariff-revision bill passed by Congress during the coming session, notwithstanding the fact that the Republicans hold the Senate. The only obstacle between the tariff and a lessening of its burden of relief is the veto power in the hands of Mr. Harrison.

What the Campaign Cost.

A New York World correspondent, writing from Columbus, gives an approximate of the money expended in the late campaign by the Democratic and Republican parties. He says the Democratic committee had $25,000 which was expended for the following purposes: Printing, postage and telegraphing, $12,000; clerk hire and rent, $4,000; speakers' traveling expenses, $5,000; contributions to local committees, $2,000; to get out the vote, $4,000. The Republican committee expended $250,000, contributed as follows: Pennsylvania manufacturers, $100,000; Ohio protection industries, $50,000; protection industries of other States, $50,000; assessment of candidates and Washington clerks, $20,000; postmaster and traveling expenses, $30,000; this was used for the following purposes: $50,000 to organize clubs; for registration, $15,000; speakers' traveling expenses, $25,000; printing, postage and telegraphing, $30,000; rent and clerk hire, $10,000; bringing men home to vote and pay of workers, $20,000; to counties to get out the vote and others to stay away, $100,000. According to this, the Republicans expended $250,000 in the campaign, for every active worker in the party received $1,000 in expenses, and they were employed in every county to organize clubs. The money was furnished to a large extent by the party, and the rest by the donors. McKinley's tariff law. They didn't propose that their agent should be paid if money could prevent it, and they advanced $250,000 to buy the great Republican victory in Ohio.

SENIORIAL PREFERENCES.

Gathered for the Benefit of Representat ve Welsh.

Almost Unanimous Expression in Favor of Hon. John Sherman.

There can be no manner of doubt that the choice of the Republicans of Mt. Vernon and Knox county for United States Senator, as between the Hon. John Sherman and ex-Governor Foraker, is decidedly in favor of the former. The contest now being carried on throughout the State between these two factions of the Republican party is attracting wide spread notice, and from a disinterested stand-point the opinion prevails that John Sherman will be his own successor and with plenty of votes to spare.

While the Hon. Wm. Welsh has made numerous public declarations of indifference to the candidacy of either Sherman or Foraker, he has not been without the feeling that he would prefer the election of Major McKinley, still, as a public servant, who should be willing to obey the wishes of his constituency, if he will take the trouble to inform himself of the preferences of the Republican friends, he will find that Sherman is the almost unanimous choice of his party in this community, as well as throughout the country.

The Bayside does not make this statement for the purpose of testimony, but has taken the trouble to institute an inquiry among leading Republicans, and the result is presented in the brief promiscuous interviews printed below.

John Cooper, "I am decidedly in favor of John Sherman on account of his grand services to the Republican party for the reason that he is sound on the currency question."
